

Fun and interesting facts (Toys)

1. Do you know what materials were used to construct toys in the ancient world?

In ancient times, sticks, rocks, and wood were utilized to craft toys. Archaeological evidence suggests that in ancient times, toys such as dolls and animals were created using natural materials. In Ancient Egypt, there were toy dolls made of wood, sticks and clay.

2. Do you know the names of toys that are popular among everyone?

Barbie, Rubik's Cube, Lego and Hot Wheels are the names of toys that are popular among children. A fashionable doll, widely known as Barbie, was first introduced in 1959. Ruth Handler is credited with the invention of the Barbie doll. In 1950, Lego created building brick toys. Bricks are made of plastic. Plastic bricks interlock with each other. Erno Rubik invented the Rubik's Cube puzzle toy in 1974. There are 26 small cubes in it. The cubes are of six colors. The Hot Wheel is a toy car. It was introduced in 1968. It was invented by Eliot Handler.

3. Do you know where the largest toy museum is situated?

The BECK Museums of Branson in Branson, Missouri, USA, is the largest museum of toys. The toy museum is about 30000 square feet. There are about one million toys in the toy museum. It includes vintage toys and modern toys.

References

- <https://www.britannica.com/topic/Barbie>
- https://simple.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ruth_Handler
- <https://www.britannica.com/biography/Erno-Rubik>
- <https://www.imdb.com/name/nm10832896/>