

Interesting facts of Christmas

1. Do you know that Christmas is not celebrated on 25 December all over the world?

Christmas is the festival of Christians that is observed by many, but not all, around the world on December 25th.

Some countries in the world celebrate Christmas on a different day.

In Ethiopia, Egypt (Coptic Orthodox), Georgia, Kazakhstan, and Serbia, Christmas is celebrated on January 7th.

The Christmas celebration dates vary due to the use of a different calendar.

This is because the Orthodox Church uses the Julian calendar, which is 13 days behind the Gregorian calendar.

2. Do you know where the Christmas tree was first seen?

In the 16th century, this tree was seen for the first time in Germany.

German people decorated this tree with nuts and fruits.

The Christmas tree symbolizes eternal life

3. Have you heard of Norway's Christmas tradition?

Every year since 1947, Norway has sent a Christmas tree to London as a token of appreciation for Britain's support during World War II, which is displayed in Trafalgar Square.

4. Was Jingle Bells originally a Christmas song?

Jingle Bells was not actually composed as a Christmas song. James Lord Pierpont wrote the song, titled "One Horse Open Sleigh," for a Thanksgiving giving show in America, and it later became a Christmas song.

References

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Observance_of_Christmas_by_country

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/59905614>

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Coptic_calendar

<https://www.britannica.com/plant/Christmas-tree>

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Trafalgar_Square_Christmas_tree

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jingle_Bells

<https://people.howstuffworks.com/culture-traditions/holidays-christmas/christmas-songs.htm>