

The Crow and the Pitcher

1. Are there modern adaptations of the fable “The Thirsty Crow”?

There various modern adaptations of the fable ‘The Thirsty Crow.

Some of these are mentioned here.

Emma Carlson Berne created a song or rhyme version of the famous fable titled The Crow and the Pitcher, published in 2018.

In another version, The Thirsty Crow Reimagined (2025), the author provides a new perspective along with bold, contemporary illustrations for young readers.

The Smart Crow Never Goes Thirsty (2008): A Manager’s Toolkit for Creativity and Innovation give a creative and innovative tool based on the story where a smarter crow uses a straw instead of collecting pebbles.

The Thirsty Crow, written by Mugdha Sakpal and published in 2025, is another book based on the famous fable that used Gond art, a traditional Indian art style, for illustration.

Lee Jenkins’ version, titled The Thirsty Crow: Aesop’s Little by Little fable (2022), is an illustrated and easy-language book mainly created for kids aged 4 to 7.

2.What is number of the famous story The Thirsty Crow in Perry index?

The Thirsty Crow also called The Crow and the Pitcher, is story number 390 in the Perry index.

3. What is the lesson of the story ‘The Thirsty Crow’?

“The Thirsty Crow” story teaches us that if one wishes to complete a work, one will find the solution to complete that work.

It also teaches the lesson that slow, steady, intelligent, and smart work ensures a solution to an impossible problem, despite if one has very few resources to solve the problem.

4. Are there historical adaptations of Aesop’s famous story, “The Thirsty Crow”?

There are various historical adaptations of the story ‘The Thirsty Crow’ story.

Some of these are mentioned here.

Bianor, a poet from Ancient Greece, created a poetic version of the story in the first century CE.

Avianus’s compilation of Latin poems from the 4th and 5th centuries also features a poetic version of the story.

It was also part of an Indian storybook known as the Panchatantra, attributed to Pandit Vishnu Sharma, which was compiled between 300 BCE and 200 BCE.

References

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Crow_and_the_Pitcher

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Perry_Index

<https://www.artsindia.com/blogs/news/what-is-gond-art>

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bianor_\(poet\))