

Fun and interesting Facts (About the characteristics of the tiger)

1. Do you know the biggest wild cats' size and weight?

Animals like lions, jaguars, leopards, and tigers belong to the wild cat family. Among wild cats, the tiger is the largest animal in the world. The weight of a tiger is up to about 363 kg. The size of a tiger is up to about 10 feet.

2. Do tigers belong to a carnivorous animal group?

Yes, tigers belong to a carnivorous animal group. This means that a tiger eats other animals. Big animals like deer, wild pigs, antelope, and buffalo are part of their routine meals.

3. Did you know how a tiger hunts animals?

They always hunt for food alone. They come out after dark to hunt. They always strike the animals' necks and heads. Tigers can walk quietly because they have soft pads on the toes. In search of a meal, they wander around 6–12 miles in the dark. They don't eat at the hunting sites. They are capable of covering their food when they do not finish it.

4. What is unique about every tiger?

Each and every tiger has a different fur pattern. Each tiger shows a different stripe design. Every tiger is recognized by the strip design.

5. Did you have an idea about the lifespan of a tiger?

In general, a tiger survives 10–15 years. Some exceptions are where tigers survive up to 20 years.

6. Did you know how many subspecies of tiger there are?

All over the world, there are 6 subspecies of tiger. The South China tiger, Bengal tiger, Indochinese tiger, Sumatran tiger, Malayan tiger, and Amur tiger are these subspecies

References

- Tiger | Facts, Information, Pictures, & Habitat | Britannica
- Big Cats Biological Classification | Taxonomy
- <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tiger>
- <https://kids.nationalgeographic.com/animals/mammals/facts/tiger>
- <https://kids.britannica.com/kids/article/tiger/353858>
- <https://study.com/academy/lesson/tiger-facts-habitat-types.html>