

Fun and interesting facts (About Barbie)

1. Who inspired the name Barbie?

Ruth Handler's daughter, Barbara, was the main inspiration behind the creation of Barbie. After watching Barbara playing with paper dolls, Ruth created a doll that allowed girls to visualize their future adult roles. She named the doll after her daughter, Barbara, which is why it became known as Barbie.

2. How many countries was Barbie sold in?

Barbie has been sold in about 150 countries since its creation.

3. Who has the largest collection of Barbie dolls?

Bettina Dorfmann, a German woman, has the largest collection of Barbie dolls in the world. She holds a Guinness world record for the largest collection of Barbie dolls and has also written books about Barbie.

4. Where was the most expensive Barbie sold?

The most expensive Barbie was sold at an auction held at Christie's, New York, USA. The doll sold for about $302,500 on October 20, 2010. An Australian jewelry designer, Stefano Canturi, created the Barbie doll. The doll was featured wearing a Cubism necklace with an Argyle pink diamond and carre-cut white diamonds.

5. How many Barbies were sold in the first year of release?

About 350,000 Barbie toys were sold in her first year

References

- https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ruth\_Handler
- <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Barbie>
- <https://www.guinnessworldrecords.com/news/2023/7/worlds-most-prolific-barbie-collector-became-doll-doctor-to-spread-joy-to-othe-755766>
- <https://timesofindia.indiatimes.com/etimes/trending/this-woman-has-the-largest-doll-collection-in-the-world/articleshow/102380706.cms>
- <https://www.bbc.com/news/11594005>